Wednesday 13th October – Friday 15th October 2010

Hull, England

The IIRP's 13th World Conference, "Restorative Practices Across Disciplines," will be held October 13–15, 2010, in Hull, England, UK, in collaboration with Hull City Council. The conference will feature several plenary speakers, including Hull's Director of Children and Young People's Services Nigel Richardson, whose vision of a family-friendly city has led to training in restorative practices for 23,000 professionals and volunteers throughout the city.

Enhancing the Community:
Restorative Approaches in Durham

9am-4.15pm, Wednesday, 17 November 2010

Durham City Town Hall, Durham City

With contributions from Looked After Services, Youth Offending, Education and the Police, this Conference will look at the application of Restorative Approaches in different settings across County Durham. Delegates will learn from the successes and set backs experienced in Durham and will have opportunities to network with Restorative Practitioners and to consider how to take the Restorative Approach forward in their own setting.

Dr Belinda Hopkins, Executive Director of Transforming Conflict, will Chair the Conference and will be delivering a Workshop.

Standard delegate rate £90. Early bird discount of £80 if you book before 31 August 2010
